ENGLAND'S BLUFF WON.

Her Naval Bill Caused the Czar to Reconsider His War Plans.

London, July 25.—The remarks of Goshen in the commons upon the bill providing for the increase of the naval strength of Great Britain has caused almost as much comment and discussion as did the recent speech of Chamberlain against an Anglo-American alliance. There are a great many who believe that the Great Britain naval bill was intended as a bluff for the benefit of Russia, and if this be true it would appear that the bluff won, for it was announced yesterday that Russia had suddenly decided to not make the big appropriation which she had intended for the purpose of increasing the strength of her navy. This sudden decision upon the part of the Czar was reached almost upon the day of the arrival of Mr. Scott, the naval constructor, who built the famous Oregon for the United States navy, and who had been summoned to St. Petersburg by the Czar, who had become greatly impressed by the performance of the Oregon on her trip around the Horn and by her behavior in subsequent engagements in the war with Spain.

A NAVAL STATION IN HAWAII.

Secretary Long Considering the Cost of a Big Naval Establishment There—May Be Built Soon.

WOULD COST ABOUT $1,500,000.

Secretary Long Has Examined Sampson's Report of the Condition of Cervera's Fleet. Soon He Made Public.

NO NEWS FROM CENTRAL MILES TODAY.

Scripture-McRae Service.

Washington, July 25.—The navy department is again considering the establishment of a naval station in Hawaii. At the request of Secretary Long estimates are being made of the cost which it is calculated will be fully fifteen hundred thousand dollars for all the improvements necessary. These improvements will make the island very valuable to the United States.

Secretary Long this morning completed the examination of Admiral Sampson's report on the destruction of Cervera's fleet and his recommendation for the preservation of the ships. The report will be given to the press tonight for publication on Tuesday morning.

THE BAKER-HOWARD FEUD

Has Been Renewed in Clay County With Great Force.

Middlesborough, Ky., July 25.—The White-Howard-Baker feud in Clay county, Ky., which was thought to have been at an end with the incarceration of the murderers of ex-Sheriff White in the Knox county jail, was renewed Wednesday, when John Baker and Charles Clarke were shot from ambush and their dead bodies filled with bullets.

Baker and Clarke were leaders of the Baker faction. Wednesday they declared their intention of going to Manchester, the county seat, where the members of the White-Howard faction live. They had been repeatedly warned by their enemies not to come, but to avoid serious trouble. Regardless of the warning, they entered the town.

They started to return to their country home, but were warned by friends not to go back by the county road, but to make a detour of the woods, as danger was feared. They insisted they were able to protect themselves, as both were heavily armed, but they had traveled less than a mile when they were unhorbed by a volley of bullets, both being instantly killed. The attacking party numbered more than twenty, all of whom took a hand in filling the corpses with slugs and buckshot.

The whole country is stirred over the bloodthirsty aspect the feud has assumed, and arms are being freely distributed. All persons who do not sympathize with either faction are leaving the county as rapidly as they can, as all who do not take an open stand are regarded as enemies by each party.

WHAT WILL FORCE PEACE?

The Washington Government Does Not Understand What Spain Wants.

Washington, July 25.—Before the Spanish fleet before Santiago was destroyed and the city surrendered, the administration had strong encouragement to believe these foreshadowed events would bring from Spain a prayer for peace. By persons acquainted with the sentiment at Madrid, such a result was predicted. It is known now to the administration that Spain was misjudged. The inertia of that nationality was not taken into account. The Spanish government has talked peace only in a vague, indefinite way, but it has not taken the first step toward action for peace.

The president now understands overtures are not to be expected even after each crushing blow as the destruction of Spain's best fleet and the capture of the second city of the island of Cuba.

If blows of the character administered at Santiago will not bring Spain to terms, what will? This question the president and his advisers have been asking themselves. They realize now the responsibility that Spain may see Manila fall and Porto Rico occupied and still fail to seek peace. They begin to question what there is that will compel this vanquished, prostrate enemy to come to terms.

PLANS OF PORTO RICO INVASION.

General Miles Believed to Be Disembarking on the Island Today at Farjado, on the North Coast.

THREE EXPEDITIONS WILL UNITE

And Advance on the City of San Juan—The Attack May Be Made in the Next Few Days.

GOVERNMENT BUYING MORE TRANSPORTS.

Scripture-McRae Service.

Washington, July 25.—As far as can be learned at the war department the plans of the Porto Rico campaign are as follows:

The first landing place will be Farjado, on the north coast, and it is believed that Gen. Miles is disembarking his troops there today.

The second landing place will be at Guanama, on the south coast, where General Brooke will land with General L'Amers, a native leader of Porto Rico.

Generals Brooke and Miles will join forces at San Piedad, where it is expected that the Spaniards will make their first stand.

Generals Wilson and Ernst will land their expedition at Barcelona and will join Miles and Brooke before San Juan.

This is the present plan of operations, but it may be changed.

GETTING TRANSPORTS.

Scripture-McRae Service.

New York, July 25.—The steamer Minawaska has just arrived here, and will be turned over to the government for use as a transport as soon as she has discharged her cargo.

The auxiliary cruiser Harvard, which was used in transporting the Spanish prisoners from Santiago to Portsmouth, N. H., was fumigated yesterday. She will be put in the transport line again in a few days.

The Buffalo, formerly the Brazilian dykemite cruiser Nichteroy, has been taken out of commission by the navy department to be remodeled and fitted out with the necessary armament to be replaced in commission as a battleship. It will cost the government an immense amount of money, it is said, to put her in the condition Secretary Long desires.

NOTHING FROM MILES TODAY.

Scripture-McRae Service.

Washington, July 25.—No meeting of the war board was held this morning.

When asked if any important naval move would be made in the next few days, Secretary Long said nothing had been definitely decided upon.

At the White House nothing has been heard from General Miles today. The president and his advisers are under the impression that the troops under General Miles have landed at Porto Rico.

THE THIRD KENTUCKY.

Chickamauga Park, July 25.—The Third brigade including the First and Third Kentucky regiments will probably not leave for Newport News before the last of this week.

OFF FOR THE PHILIPPINES.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 25.—The transport steamer Rio Janeiro, bearing two battalions of South Dakota volunteer recruits for the Utah light artillery and a detachment of the signal corps, sailed Saturday for Manila. The expedition will be under the command of Brig. Gen. H. G. Oils, who has stated that he will make all possible speed to join the United States forces in the Philippines.

The defendant lives in Clarksville, Tenn., and the estate is here.

EVACUATING SANTIAGO PROVINCE.

Reported That Ten Thousand Spaniards Have Left Holguin, and Have Gone to the West.

MAY SURRENDER ALL EAST CUBA.

Plans of the War Department to Bring Shafter's Army Back to the United States for Recuperation.

TO PREPARE FOR THE HAVANA CAMPAIGN.

Scripture-McRae Service.

Santiago, July 25.—It is reported that Gen. Luque with the ten thousand Spanish soldiers who have been holding Holguin have evacuated the town. If this is true it indicates a desire on the part of the Spaniards to surrender the entire east end of the island. Their plan is probably to concentrate their forces and to make a determined stand in the Western provinces and finally at Havana.

Washington, July 25.—The war department is planning to bring Gen. Shafter's army back to the United States just as soon as the Spanish prisoners are out of the way and on their way to Spain. The soldiers will be brought to some seaside point to recuperate for the Havana operations.

SPANIARDS IN SAD PLIGHT.

Capt. Eulate Losing His Mind As The Result of His Misfortune.

Annapolis, Md., July 23.—Annapolis people, particularly those in communication with the Spanish officers now on parole here, believe that Capt. Eulate, commander of the Vizcaya, is losing his mind as a result of the destruction of his vessel and the experience undergone by him for weeks prior to the time when Cervera's fleet made its fateful dash out of Santiago harbor. A majority of the Spanish officers are in a state of mind that is pitiable, and many of them have expressed fear for their personal safety when they return to Spain. The officers realize that their careers are practically ended so far as government service is concerned, owing to the fact that, with true Spanish inconsistency, the people, and probably the governmental officers, will hold them personally responsible for the loss of the Cervera fleet.

THE BANKRUPT LAW.

U. S. Commissioner J. R. Puryear Receives a Communication.

U. S. Commissioner J. R. Puryear is in receipt of the following letter from Washington relative to the lately enacted bankrupt law, which is self-explanatory:

Office of the Clerk, Supreme Court of the United States, Washington, D. C., July, 1898.—To Clerk U. S. Court, Paducah, Ky.—Sir: Section 30, of the U. S. Bankruptcy Law of 1898, copy of which is sent you herewith, provides that "all necessary rules, forms and orders as to procedure and for carrying this act into force and effect shall be prescribed, and may be amended from time to time by the Supreme Court of the United States." The court had adjourned for the term at the time of the passage of this act and will not be in session again until the tenth day of October, next, and, consequently, no action can be taken by the court under the above quoted section, before that date. Please notify the bar of your court of this fact. Very respectfully,

JAMES H. McKENNEY,

General King Estimates That Merritt Will Need Fifty Thousand Soldiers to End the Philippine Campaign.

GENERAL KING SAILS FOR MANILA SOON.

Scripture-McRae Service.

New York, July 25.—The Herald has a Washington dispatch which says:

The sailing of Commodore Watson's expedition has at last been postponed indefinitely, because of Germany's reiteration of absolute neutrality and of the desire of the government to put the war vessels in complete repair.

50,000 MEN

Is What General King Says Merritt Must Have in the Philippine Islands.

Scripture-McRae Service.

San Francisco, July 25.—The next expedition to Manila will be under the charge of Gen. Chas. King, who will sail on the Arisno or Scandia in a few days. Gen. King thinks that General Merritt will need an army of full fifty thousand men before he can end the campaign in the Philippines. It is very probable that the natives will give vastly more trouble than the Spaniards.

RIOTING IN SPAIN.

A SUDDEN DEPARTURE.

The Latest Metropolis Sensation.

Doctor Runs Away and His Wife Tries to Kill Herself With Morphine.

Dr. Fisher Leaves a Letter Saying They Will See Him No More.

Cause of His Action Only Conjectured.

Metropolis had a sensation of great proportions yesterday, and the place has not yet recovered from the excitement.

Dr. H. C. Fisher is the name of a well known physician, who has many friends in Paducah, as well as in Paducah. Yesterday he left home and went to his office. He did not return for dinner, and his family, thinking strange of it, sent down to investigate his absence.

He could not be found, but in his office were found two letters, one to his wife. It is said it conveyed to her the startling news that she would never see him again. When she heard this she took morphine, with suicidal intent, it is alleged, but did take enough. Medical attention was sought, and she was soon out of danger.

A further inquiry developed the fact that the doctor, when he left took his medical diploma with him. When last seen he was two miles down a lonely river road. A search was instituted for him, but he could not be found. The search was resumed today, the searchers intending to go as far as Joppa, and catch the Fowler there.

Financial embarrassment and domestic troubles are the only causes assigned for the rash actions of the doctor, and his unexpected disappearance.

The fact that he took his diploma indicates that either he simply left to seek greener fields or to tear himself away from the cares and embarrassments of his old life, or else he desired thus to conceal an intention to commit suicide.

SNEER AT AMERICAN VICTORIES.

Some Claim to Prefer Spanish to American Rule—Feeling Getting to Be Very Bitter Against Americans.

MORE SICKNESS AT CAMP ALGER.

Scripture-McRae Service.

Key West, July 25.—The eight thousand Cubans who reside here make no effort to conceal their dissatisfaction at the turn affairs have taken under Gen. Shafter's management at Santiago. They were confident that Cubans would be put in charge of the city immediately after its fall.

They received the news of the American victory with sullen indifference and sneer at the enthusiasm of the Americans.

Some even declare their preference for Cuba remaining under Spanish rather than American rule. The feeling between the Americans and Cubans is strained, but no trouble is expected.

FATALLY HURT.

Accident Which Befell James Lampley, of Marshall County.

He Went Into a Tree After a Squirrel and Fell—Injuries May Prove Fatal.

James Lampley, a young man about 18 years old, of near Little Cypress, was probably fatally hurt Saturday afternoon. He went squirrel hunting, and shot a squirrel in a tree. The animal was only wounded, and crawled into a hole for safety. The young man, armed with an ax, climbed the tree, and cut off a limb about thirty feet from the ground. When it fell, in some way he was carried with it, and the injuries he sustained may prove fatal.

He is a nephew of Mortimer Jake Temple, of the city.

Wounded Soldiers Put on the Seneca Like So Many Cattle. Story of a Nurse Who Was on Board.

FAULT OF OFFICERS AT SEBONEY

Who Crowded the Wounded on to the Ship With No Care or Provisions for Their Comfort.

IT IS A MIRACLE THAT NONE DIED.

Scripture-McRae Service.

New York, July 25.—Jeannette Jennings, a nurse who was on the Seneca, makes an important statement relative to the alleged negligence of the officers of the ship in caring for the wounded.

She says the ship's captain was not responsible for the overcrowding of the boat, but it was the fault of the officers at Seboney.

She alleges that the Seneca was not inspected before the wounded were ordered aboard. She also says they were transferred without clothing except the night clothes they wore, and no provisions had been made whatever for them or their comfort, but that the wounded soldiers were placed in ill-smelling cattle pens.

It is a miracle, she says, that none died on the homeward trip.

RESULT OF HOBSON'S VISIT.

Washington, July 25.—Lieutenant Hobson's visit is expected to bring about an enlargement of the plans for saving the wrecked Spanish cruiser Cristobal Colon and some of the other stranded ships of Cervera's squadron. The department has already acted on the recommendations of Admiral Sampson, but these coming by mail and telegraph are necessarily limited, while the complete information brought by Lieut. Hobson, based on personal observations and expert knowledge of the conditions, enables the department to get a much more thorough idea of the scope of this wrecking project, and the possibilities of saving the ships. The Colon is lying on a terraced beach only about half of her hull being on shore, while the other half is overhanging in deep water. It has been found the portion on shore can be raised without much difficulty.
